

newspaper strike in 1996. His advocacy for workers was especially focused on GPO. For more than 40 years Bill advocated strongly and tirelessly for the agency, defending its essential role and the role played by its employees in supporting Congress and the Federal Government. His advice and counsel were sought and welcomed by Members of Congress on both sides of the aisle, as well as Presidents.

After his retirement from GPO in 2012, Bill remained committed to public service. He was appointed by Maryland's governor to serve on both the Maryland Commission on Judicial Disabilities and the Anne Arundel Board of Elections. He was an avid boater who loved his home port on the Severn River and enjoyed the beauty of the Chesapeake Bay. He had a keen understanding of American history and thrived on lively political discussions. He loved sports, especially University of Maryland basketball and the Washington Football Team.

In Bill Boorman, American printers nationwide had a true friend; the Congress, an honorable and skillful servant; GPO, a champion whose impact continues to be felt. I ask my fellow Members of the House to join me in extending our deepest condolences to Bill's family and friends, as well as the thanks of a grateful nation for his dedicated service.

RECOGNIZING INTERNATIONAL OVERDOSE AWARENESS DAY

HON. J. FRENCH HILL

OF ARKANSAS

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, August 31, 2021

Mr. HILL. Madam Speaker, today I recognize International Overdose Awareness Day.

I speak not only as a Congressman, but as a father and husband who is working towards an end to overdose deaths and the heartache for the families and loved ones left behind.

To those who have a loved one struggling with a substance abuse disorder or who have lost a loved one to an overdose, I am sorry, and I share in the collective grief.

Like many in my home state of Arkansas and across the nation, my family and I have lost friends to overdoses.

I am listening and I understand the pain that you and your loved ones have experienced in losing someone to an overdose.

Throughout my time in Congress, I have worked to combat the opioid crisis, end overdose deaths, and end the stigma of overdose deaths and addiction.

I was the co-author of the bipartisan Fentanyl Sanctions Act, and I am proud that it was signed into law in December 2019 as part of the National Defense Authorization Act.

This law placed sanctions on drug manufacturers in China who knowingly provide synthetic opioids to traffickers, and it placed sanctions on transnational criminal organizations like those in Mexico who mix fentanyl with other drugs and traffic them into the United States.

And, importantly, it placed sanctions on financial institutions assisting those entities and individuals knowingly trafficking synthetic opioids.

Stopping the flow of fentanyl and synthetic opioids is critical to preventing addiction and overdoses, and through it we will save lives.

I appreciate the opportunity to mark International Overdose Awareness Day and thank the organizers of the event, the Parker Gill Foundation, in Little Rock that is bringing together loved ones and that continues this important fight in the memory of those lost.

I look forward to working with my colleagues on both sides of the aisle to continue this fight.

HONORING LINDA HAMILTON ON BEING SELECTED FOR INDUC- TION INTO THE WYOMING AGRICULTURE HALL OF FAME

HON. LIZ CHENEY

OF WYOMING

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, August 31, 2021

Ms. CHENEY. Madam Speaker, I rise today to honor and congratulate Linda Hamilton on being selected for induction into the Wyoming Agriculture Hall of Fame Class of 2021.

Linda grew up on a ranch in the Sandhills of Nebraska and attended college at Northwest College in Powell and later, the University of Wyoming. Linda has long been a leader in her community and in the field of agriculture in Wyoming. Through Linda's willingness to share her extensive knowledge of the agriculture industry, she has become known as a spearhead and a trusted adviser within our local community and other agricultural communities throughout the state.

Linda has dedicated her time and efforts to many events and organizations within the Hyattville community, as well as serving as a founding member of Wyoming Agriculture in the Classroom. Through her activism, Linda was able to further the work of the Wyoming Association of Conservation District to assist farmers and ranchers in improving their operations while also protecting soil, water, plant, and wildlife resources.

You can find Linda feeding bum lambs, driving equipment, wrangling grandchildren, sewing or completing any task that needs to be done on the ranch or within the community on a regular basis. Linda's devotion to the ranch, her family, and the agriculture industry is unmatched. Wyoming is fortunate that Linda chose to move here from Nebraska all those many years ago. Linda possesses a drive and tenacity that is truly unmatched. You will not find anyone as dedicated to the promotion of local agriculture and the ranching way of life.

I thank Linda for her dedication to Wyoming's agriculture industry, and congratulations to her on the well-deserved induction into the Hall of Fame.

IN REMEMBRANCE OF DOC DUGAN

HON. ROBERT J. WITTMAN

OF VIRGINIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, August 31, 2021

Mr. WITTMAN. Madam Speaker, it is with deep sadness but great respect that I take this time to remember one of my constituents, Mr. Ferdinand "Doc" Dugan, III of Hague, Virginia.

Mr. Dugan passed away on Sunday, August 15, 2021 at the age of 88. Mr. Dugan was born in Catonsville, Maryland, and completed his undergraduate degree at the U.S. Naval Academy.

Dugan honored his country with lifelong service, first with the United States Navy, and then in business. After retirement, Mr. Dugan went on to open an art gallery, where he sold original artwork and provided custom framing in the Northern Neck.

In addition to a life of leadership in the military and active participation in local politics, Mr. Dugan was known as a family man and a valuable member of the community. Along with his wife, Bobbie Dugan, together they have nine children, twenty-eight grandchildren, and five great-grandchildren.

Therefore, Madam Speaker, I ask you to join me in honoring the life of Doc Dugan and applauding his contributions to Westmoreland County and the Commonwealth. On behalf of America's First District, we say thank you to Doc Dugan.

REMEMBERING JIMMIE MUÑOZ, SR.

HON. RUBEN GALLEGOS

OF ARIZONA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, August 31, 2021

Mr. GALLEGOS. Madam Speaker, I rise today to honor the life and legacy of Jimmie Muñoz, Sr., who passed away on August 16 due to complications from COVID-19. Jimmie was a longtime south Phoenix community leader whom I had the honor of knowing.

Jimmie was the son of Mexican immigrants who grew up in the former Golden Gate barrio in Phoenix and took great pride in where he came from. He served in the U.S. Army for six years, during which he met and married his wife, Norma. After retiring from the Army, Jimmie returned to Arizona, where throughout the course of his life he started several different businesses including a ranch, a telecommunications business, and a local hangout called The Batters Cage.

For Jimmie, family and community always came first, which is why he and Norma helped start the South Mountain Youth Development Association and organized an annual Cinco de Mayo festival. As part of his commitment to his community, Jimmie was elected constable of the South Mountain Justice Court in 1998. This was a difficult and sometime dangerous job that Jimmie conducted with compassion and dedication until his retirement in 2017.

Jimmie was a truly kind man whose spirit will be greatly missed in the south Phoenix community. My thoughts are with his family during this difficult time.
